Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

Please allow us to invite you to participate in the conference „Digital Pathology“, which will be held from June 11 to 13, 2025 at the Hotel pod Lipou, located in the foothills of the Little Carpathians not far from the town of Modra.

The professional program of the conference is designed as a two-day one and will consist of invited lectures not only from the field of pathology, but also from IT and AI. The conference is intended for all interested parties who are involved in the process of successful implementation of digitalization in laboratory practice.

We believe that the thematic focus of the conference will interest you and that you will be able to participate in the event.

We look forward to your participation and meeting you

On behalf of the organizing committee
